

THE CLIMATE
REGISTRY

Applicant Verification Bodies

The following organizations have applied to conduct verifications for members of The Climate Registry and are proceeding through the ANSI National Accreditation Board \(ANAB\) accreditation process. TCR Members may contract with a verification body that is proceeding through the accreditation process*.

Once an applicant verification body attains ANAB accreditation, they will be included in the list of TCR-recognized verification bodies.

*Please note that the applicant verification body must complete the accreditation process in order for the verified report to be published in CRIS. Verification bodies are allowed one year from the time they apply to ANAB's accreditation program to attain accreditation. Applicant verification bodies who do not attain accreditation will be required to refund the cost of verification to the member, and the member must have its inventory re-verified by another verification body.
